

Resources

Information papers

The National Asthma Council produces essential asthma management resources for health professionals. These evidence-based resources are free to download on our website.

Information papers for health professionals

<https://www.nationalasthma.org.au/living-with-asthma/resources/health-professionals/information-paper>